I know young persons, says Theodore Parker. think love belongs only to the brown hair often has an interesting souvenir around. On and plump, round, crimson cheek. So it does for its beginning, just as Mount Washington begins at Boston Bay. But the golden marriage is a part of love which the bridal day knows nothing of. Youth is the tassel and sliken flower of love ; age is the full corn, ripe and solld in the ear. Beautiful is the morning of love with its prophetic crimson, violet, saffron, purple and golo, with its hopes of days that are to come. Beautiful also is the evening of love, with its glad remembrance and its raintow side turned towards heaven as well as carth.
